Owner's Address
Property Location or Address (If not same as above)

Farm buildings and structures are exempt from the Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code (USBC). In order to qualify for this exemption, the structure must be used for a specific purpose which is directly related to an operating farm and provide a copy of schedule F (Form 1040), Profit or Loss from Farming, that was filed with the IRS for the current or as demonstrated by previous tax year.

The CODE OF VIRGINIA § 36-97 defines farm buildings and structures as follows:

A building or structure not used for residential purposes, located on property where farming operations take place, and used primarily for any of the following uses or combination thereof:

1. Storage, handling, production, display, sampling, or sale of agricultural, horticultural, floricultural or silvicultural products produced on the farm;
2. Sheltering, raising, handling, processing or sale of agricultural animals or agricultural animal products;
3. Business or office uses related to the farm operations;
4. Use of farm machinery or equipment or maintenance or storage of vehicles, machinery or equipment on the farm;
5. Storage of use of supplies and materials used on the farm; or
6. Implementation of best management practices associated with farm operations.

"Farm operation" means any activity conducted solely or primarily for the production of one or more agricultural products or commodities, including timber, for sale or home use, and customarily producing such products or commodities in sufficient quantity to be capable of contributing materially to the operator's support. (CODE OF VIRGINIA § 25.1-400)

Is the proposed structure to be used for residential purposes? If "Yes", then the structure is not eligible to be exempt from the Building Code	<input type="checkbox"/> YES or <input type="checkbox"/> NO
Do farming operations take place on the property?
